

European Association for HUMAN RIGHTS

999489

Gerald E. Marshall

From Foster Care
to Texas Death Row

Buy a book
&
Save a life !

Gerald E. Marshall

999489 – From Foster Care To Texas Death Row

About the author

Gerald E. Marshall (1982) was sentenced to death by the state of Texas in 2004 in relation to capital murder. He is currently incarcerated in Polunsky Unit Livingston (Texas), where the United State's most notorious death row is housed.

Available on Amazon (USA and Europe)
in English, French, German and Italian.

All proceeds from book sales will go towards the projects of the European Association for Human Rights.

www.humanrights-association.org

About the book

This is Gerald Marshall's story – an appeal for justice and the indestructible hope for freedom. He gives you an insight into his experiences growing up in foster care in an environment where drugs and violence were daily fare. He allows you to see behind the curtain of Texas death row and the justice system and explains how he ended up on death row for a murder he obviously did not commit.